Article 3 (Weight Tolerance of Delivery Goods)

1. With respect to the delivery of silver, platinum, or palladium, if the weight of the delivery goods is within plus-or-minus six-percent (6%) for silver, two-percent (2%) for platinum, or fifteen-percent (15%) for palladium, of the delivery unit prescribed in the preceding article, the buyer shall accept them and settlement shall be completed at the delivery price for said weight of the delivery goods.

Article 3-2 (Calculation of Weight of Delivery Goods)

1. The weight shall be calculated for each delivery unit of Delivery Goods in the following manner.
- (1) For Silver, the minimum measuring unit for delivery goods shall be 1 gram. Any resulting fraction that is less than 1 gram shall be rounded off.
- (2) For Platinum, the minimum measuring unit for delivery goods shall be 0.01 gram. Any resulting fraction that is less than 0.01 gram shall be rounded off.
- (3) For Palladium, the minimum measuring unit for delivery goods shall be 0.01 gram. Any resulting fraction that is less than 0.01 gram shall be rounded off. If two or three bars consist one delivery unit, the total of two or three bars shall be calculated.

Article 4 (Delivery Method)

1. The delivery shall be conducted in the following manner.
- (1) With respect to delivery goods for delivery, the seller shall prepare and submit to the Exchange a Delivery Tender Notice (for the delivery of palladium, if one delivery unit consists of multiple bars, the Delivery Tender Notice shall contain a statement to that effect; the same shall apply hereinafter in these Detailed Rules) prescribed by the Exchange, by noon on the business day immediately following the last trading day of the current contract month. If there is consent of the receiving party prescribed in the proviso clause of Article 54.1 of the Market Rules, a document certifying the existence of the consent of the receiving party shall also be submitted to the Exchange.
- (2) The seller and the buyer, preferring Customized Delivery provided for in Article 15, shall prepare and submit to the Exchange a Delivery Tender Notice and Delivery Acceptance

Notice, prescribed by the Exchange, respectively, by noon on the business day immediately following the last trading day of the current contract month. Upon receipt of said Delivery Tender Notice and Delivery Acceptance Notice, the Exchange shall notify Members (meaning Members provided for in Article 6.1 of the Market Rules; the same shall apply in this Article, Article 7, Article 8, Article 9, Article 15, Article 22 and Article 26) thereof without delay.

- (3) Trade Members, etc. with concurrent positions shall be both the seller and the buyer for the delivery pertaining to such concurrent positions.
- (4) With respect to delivery goods other than those for which the counterparty is determined, in accordance with the provisions of Article 15.2 and Article 15-2, if there are two or more buyers for the portion excluding those pertaining to delivery of concurrent positions, the delivery goods to be received by each buyer shall be determined based on a lot drawing conducted by the Exchange. In this case, such lot drawing shall be conducted in accordance with the methods determined by the Exchange and at a time indicated by the Exchange, after receipt of the Delivery Tender Notice prescribed in Item 1, in the presence of the buyers pertaining to said delivery (including their agents). If any of the buyers fails to appear by the time indicated, an employee of the Exchange shall act as proxy for the absent buyer.
- (5) Upon determination of the delivery goods to be received by each buyer, the Exchange shall notify the buyer and the seller pertaining to said delivery thereof, without delay.
- (6) The Exchange shall notify the buyer and the seller pertaining to said delivery of the delivery payment and the amount of consumption tax (including local consumption tax; the same shall apply hereinafter), applicable thereto (the sum of the delivery payment and the amount of consumption tax applicable thereto shall be hereinafter referred to as "Delivery Payment"), by noon of the business day immediately preceding the delivery day;
- (7) The buyer shall, by noon of the delivery day prescribed in Article 50 of the Market Rules, deliver the Delivery Payment to the Exchange and receive the warehouse receipt in exchange therefore from the Exchange.
- (8) The seller shall deliver to the Exchange the warehouse receipt (for the delivery of palladium, if one delivery unit consists of multiple bars, the warehouse receipt shall contain a statement to that effect - the same shall apply hereinafter in these Detailed Rules) (or the Delivery Order, if the delivery is to be carried out by way of Customized Delivery pursuant to the provisions of Article 15), of the delivery goods slated for delivery by 3:00 p.m. of the business day immediately preceding the delivery day and receive the Delivery Payment at the time of delivery.
- (9) In cases where the proviso clause of Article 54.1 of the Market Rules applies to the preceding two items, the term "warehouse receipt" shall be deemed to be replaced with "Delivery Order or the physical commodity."

Article 5 (Obligation of the Seller)

1. The seller (or Customers, etc., in the case of a customer position) shall furnish precious metal bars intended for delivery to an appraiser designated by the Exchange ("approved appraiser") for appraisal no later than six business days before the last trading day of the current contract month. A receipt for the precious metal bars will be provided from the approved appraiser.
2. The approved appraiser shall complete the appraisal of precious metal bars furnished by the seller within five business days from the date of acceptance.
3. Costs incurred for the appraisal, prescribed in the preceding two paragraphs, and other costs incidental thereto, shall be borne by the seller.
4. If precious metal bars accepted from the seller qualify as Good Delivery Material, the approved appraiser shall notify the seller to that effect without delay and transfer the precious metal bars accepted from the seller to an approved warehouse.
5. Subsequent to the case outlined in the preceding paragraph, the approved warehouse shall promptly issue a warehouse receipt to the seller, unless instructed otherwise.
6. The approved warehouse that accepts the Good Delivery Material prescribed in the - preceding paragraph, and issues a warehouse receipt, shall rotate on a monthly basis.

7. Transportation costs incurred for the acceptance of Good Delivery Material from the approved appraiser, under Paragraph 4, shall be borne by the Exchange.
 8. If precious metal bars furnished by the seller do not qualify as Good Delivery Material, the approved appraiser shall notify the seller without delay and return said precious metal bars to the seller.
 9. The provisions of the preceding eight paragraphs shall not apply in cases where the seller is a person designated by the Exchange, and said seller furnishes precious metal bars slated for delivery, directly to an approved warehouse.

Article 6 (Loss and/or Damage after the Submission of Warehouse Receipt)

1. In cases where all, or part of the delivery goods described in a warehouse receipt, are lost or damaged for reasons not attributable to the delivery parties, after the seller has submitted the warehouse receipt to the Exchange for delivery, but before the Exchange submits it to the buyer, the loss shall be borne by the seller.
2. In the case outlined in the preceding paragraph, the seller shall, without delay, notify the Exchange of the loss or damage. In addition, the seller shall submit a warehouse receipt for substitutes for the delivery goods lost or damaged, and make delivery within five business days of the business day immediately following the date of said notification.
3. Notwithstanding the provisions of Paragraph 2, in cases where the seller is unable to supply all or part of such substitutes, the seller may refuse to supply such portion, subject to the approval of the Exchange. In this case, the Exchange shall deem the delivery to have been completed and return to the buyer the amount of the Delivery Payment corresponding to the undelivered portion of the substitutes for the delivery goods lost or damaged.
4. In the case of the above Paragraphs 2 or 3, the buyer may not refuse to receive delivery.

Article 7 (Early Delivery)

1. In cases where the seller or the buyer seeks a counterparty for Early Delivery, they shall make an application for Early Delivery during the period from the first day of the month immediately preceding the month containing the last trading day of the current contract month (to be moved down if the day falls on a holiday), to 2:30 p.m. of the third business day prior to the last trading day of the current contract month. For this purpose, either the seller or the buyer shall submit necessary documents to the Exchange; for the seller, a Delivery Tender Notice prescribed by the Exchange for delivery goods to offer for delivery, and a document indicating the last delivery day; and for the buyer, a document indicating the brand and the amount of the delivery goods to be accepted, the last delivery day, and specification requirements for the delivery goods, if any. If either party intends to specify the business day immediately following the application day for Early Delivery as the last delivery day, it shall submit an application to the Exchange by noon of said application day.
2. Upon receipt of an application for Early Delivery, the Exchange shall, without delay, seek potential counterparties by notifying Members of the contents of the documents prescribed in the preceding paragraph.
3. Members who apply for Early Delivery may not execute an offset transaction for the proposed delivery amount, cancel the application, or change the terms and conditions of the application. However, this shall not apply to the portion for which no application for acceptance has been made by the prescribed cut-off time.
4. In cases where Members, who hold offsetting positions against the positions for which Early Delivery is proposed, are willing to accept all or part of the proposed Early Delivery, they shall make an offer for acceptance. For this purpose, either the seller or the buyer shall submit necessary documents to the Exchange; for the seller, a Delivery Tender Notice prescribed by the Exchange for the delivery goods to offer for delivery; and for the buyer, a document indicating the brand and the amount of the delivery goods to accept.
5. The offer for acceptance prescribed in the preceding paragraph shall be made by 2:30 p.m. of each business day, through the business day immediately preceding the last delivery day,

- as specified by the Members who apply for Early Delivery. The Exchange shall determine the counterparty sequentially according to the order of the application day for such acceptance. In cases where there is competition among applicants with respect to the application day, the Exchange shall determine the counterparty by conducting a lot drawing on a daily basis in conformity with the provisions of Article 4.4.
6. Regarding Paragraph 1 and Paragraph 4, if the seller is a person other than the person designated by the Exchange, pursuant to the provisions of Article 5.9, the seller shall have precious metal bars slated for delivery, appraised by an approved appraiser by the day of application for Early Delivery, or the acceptance thereof.
 7. Members that apply for Early Delivery, or offer for acceptance thereof, may not refuse to accept Early Delivery on the grounds that the amount to be delivered falls short of the proposed amount.
 8. The day and time for an Early Delivery shall be noon of the business day immediately following the day on which the seller or the buyer of the delivery goods is determined.
 9. The delivery price for Early Delivery shall be the settlement price of the first contract month, as of the day on which the seller or the buyer of the delivery goods is determined. The positions for which the delivery price has been determined shall be excluded from unrealized profit and loss calculations starting from the following Clearing Period.
 10. When it is determined that Early Delivery will be conducted, the Exchange shall notify Members thereof without delay.
 11. The Exchange shall notify the delivery price etc. to the seller and the buyer of said delivery by the business day immediately preceding the delivery day.
 12. The buyer in Early Delivery shall, by the delivery time and day, make the Delivery Payment to the Exchange and receive the warehouse receipt in exchange therefore from the Exchange.
 13. The seller in Early Delivery shall deliver to the Exchange the warehouse receipt of the delivery goods to be delivered by the delivery time and day and receive the payment of the Delivery Payment in exchange therefore from the Exchange.
 14. In cases where the proviso clause of Article 54.1 of the Market Rules applies, “the warehouse receipt” in previous two paragraphs shall be deemed to be replaced with “the Delivery Order or the actual spots”.

Article 8 (Mutually Consented Early Delivery)

1. Members holding positions in the first contract month may make delivery for these positions prior to the business day immediately preceding the last trading day of the current contract month, based on mutual consent between the seller and the buyer (“mutually consented Early Delivery”); provided, however, this shall not apply to any amount for which other Members holding positions for the first contract month raise an objection.
2. Members intending to carry out a mutually consented Early Delivery shall submit to the Exchange an application form for mutually consented Early Delivery, signed jointly by the seller and the buyer, and the documents prescribed in Paragraph 1 of the preceding article, by noon of the business day immediately preceding the delivery day of said mutually consented Early Delivery.
3. In cases where other Members holding positions for the first contract month intend to raise an objection to a mutually consented Early Delivery, pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, they shall submit to the Exchange a statement of reason for the objection and the documents prescribed in Paragraph 1 of the preceding article, by 2:30 p.m. of the business day immediately preceding the delivery day of said mutually consented Early Delivery. If the Exchange judges that there is a justifiable reason for the objection, the Exchange shall require the mutually consented Early Delivery to be made for the amount calculated, by deducting the amount pertaining to said objection from the amount originally proposed for the mutually consented Early Delivery.
4. With respect to the amount that was deducted from the amount originally proposed for the mutually consented Early Delivery under the preceding paragraph, the Exchange shall deem that an application for Early Delivery, or an offer for acceptance has been made, pursuant to the provisions of the preceding article, by the applicant for said mutually consented Early Delivery, or by the Members who raised an objection to said mutually consented Early

- Delivery, and process the amount in accordance with the provisions of the same article.
5. The Exchange will not be liable for the quality of any goods for mutually consented Early Delivery. The provisions of Paragraphs 2 and 3, and 7 through 14 of the preceding article shall apply mutatis mutandis to mutually consented Early Delivery.

Article 9 (Early Delivery for Concurrent Positions)

1. Members holding concurrent positions for the first contract month may make delivery for these positions prior to the business day immediately preceding the last trading day of the current contract month (“Early Delivery for concurrent positions”).
2. The provisions of Paragraphs 3, 4, and 8 through 14 of Article 7 and Paragraph 2 of the preceding article shall apply mutatis mutandis to Early Delivery for concurrent positions.
